Warrenton Social News

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
WARRENTON, Va., November 15.— Professor J. D. Harris, principal of the Warrenton High School, assisted by Dr. Robert Fraser, recently organized a Junior Improvement League among the students of the Warrenton High School, with the following officers: President, W. G. Bartanstein; Vice-President, Miss Nan Jeffries; Secretary, Miss Nellie Sudduth; Treasurer, James L. Jeffries, Jr.

The object of this league is for the beautifying the school grounds and decorating the school with pictures and securing a library.

A basketball team has been recently organized among the young ladies of the Warrenton High School, and as soon as the grounds can be put into condition, and the necessary equipment secured, the young ladies will play several games.

Mrs. W. W. Williamson has sold her property on the Alexandria Pike to Mr. George Woodell for $8,000. Mr.
Woodell sold his farm to Mr. W. E.
Matthews, and Mrs. Williamson has purchased the residence on Main Street, belonging to Mrs. John B. Minor, of Richmond.

The Balzac Reading Club has been reorganized for the winter. The first meeting took place on Tuesday afternoon at Miss Sublett's. Several new members have been admitted, namely, Miss Sadie Sublett, Miss Elizabeth Gaines and Miss Landonia Hicks.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Donald Richards have rented the house on Main Street, recently occupied by Mr. A. V. Strother.
Mr. and Mrs. Richards will soon be joined by Mr. and Mrs. Paul Richards.

A wedding of great interest has recently been announced and will take place next month. It is of Miss Bertha Maddux, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Maddux, to Mr. Norman B. King, of Baltimore.

A vaudeville performance is to be given here shortly for the benefit of the public library, which is being organized, and which we are glad to say is progressing very well. The cast will be of local talent exclusively, and it is needless to say the performance will be a great success. Mrs. H. C.
Grooms and Miss Moore are on the committee of arrangements.

Mr. and Mrs. James K. Maddux gave a small hunt breakfast Tuesday afternoon after the drag. Only those riding were present.

"Ben Hur," which is being played in Washington this week at the National Theatre, is proving an unwarranted success, and a number of Warrentonians have gone down to the city to witness the production among whom are Mrs. George Smith, Miss Catherine Sowers, Colonel and Mrs.
William Kemper, Miss Luella Taylor and Dr. and Mrs. M. G. Douglas.

Miss Nan Jeffries left this morning for Charlottesville, where she will undergo a slight operation on her throat at the University Hospital. Dr. Sam Manhis accompanied her.

Miss Catherine Wade, who has been the guest of Miss Nan Jeffries, has returned to her home at Broad Run.
Dr. Robert Fraser spent several days in Richmond this week.

Colonel Thornton spent this week at Atlantic City, where he will spend several days with Miss Mary Amelia Smith, who has been there some time reconvalescing.

Mrs. R. W. Cook left this week for her home in Baltimore. Miss Cook, who is in her grandfather's will, followed later.

Mr. H. W. Hillberry, of Charlottesville, spent some time in town this week.

Miss Jane Forbes has returned home after an extended trip to the Northern cities.

Mr. Charles A. Owens of North Carolina, spent some time in town recently.
Miss Alice Smith, who has been in New York for several weeks, is on a visit to Colonel and Mrs. Grenville Gunter.

Mrs. Walter Robinson and Miss Louise Robinson, who have been in town for some time, left this week for their home in Chicago. Both Robinson and Miss Robinson made a host of friends here who regret exceedingly to see them go.

Messrs. Orlando and William Hodgkins spent Sunday in town with their parents. They had as their guests several of the boys who came down with the Randolph-Macon team.

Mr. George Tongue is at home after a trip of several days to the different sections of Virginia.

A chapter of the Woodmen of the World has been organized in town, and about fifteen members were installed.

Floyd Social News.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
FLOYD, Va., November 15.—Mrs.
Pearl Micheal, of Roanoke, spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. William Pendleton.

Hon. P. G. Lester has returned from an extended trip to Roanoke and other places, where he has been on a business trip for the last two weeks.

Mr. R. R. Brame and wife left Monday for the coal-fields of West Virginia, and will be away two weeks.

Col. A. C. Dunn, Mr. J. C. McGregor and Colonel Roger A. Fryor have returned to New York, after several days spent in the village in the interest of the New York and Virginia Copper Company.

Mr. E. S. Pedigo, clerk, has moved from the Mullins property to the old Matthew Scott property on Main Street.
Mr. W. Scott, who lost his storehouse and dwelling by fire some time ago, has completed a nice storehouse and dwelling on the old site, and will move into the same soon.

Dr. M. J. Dalton has completed his handsome new residence on Locust Street, which is a great improvement to that section of the village.

Rev. J. C. Melton, the new Methodist minister, and wife arrived here last Friday, and preached his first sermon Sunday morning.

Mr. Frank Smith, a student at Roanoke College, spent Saturday and Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W.
M. Smith, returning to Roanoke Monday.

Captain and Mrs. D. W. Sowers left Tuesday for Salisbury, N. C., to spend the winter with their son, Rev. H. R.
Sowers.

Mrs. Dr. Pendleton has returned from Jamestown and Norfolk, to which latter place she was a delegate at a meeting of the Daughters of the Confederacy.

Dr. M. L. Dalton and wife, J. M.
Harman and J. M. Graham left Monday to attend the Medical Society, which meets at Norfolk and will take in the exposition before returning.

Staunton Social News.

STAUNTON, Va., November 15.—Miss Eleanor Wheat, of Richmond, is spending some time here.

Mrs. A. M. Valz has returned from Washington and Baltimore, and returned to the city after an absence of several months. She spent some time in Philadelphia, Atlantic City and various points in Virginia.

Misses Mary Miller and Elizabeth Atkinson have returned from Richmond and Norfolk.

Miss Mabel Worthington has returned to Baltimore after a visit to Mrs.
S. Godfrey Henkel.

spending some time in Baltimore.

Mrs. C. M. Malley, here are spending some time in Philadelphia.

STORE CHAT.

The approach of Thanksgiving finds your store in excellent shape—quite ready to fill your wants for this festive occasion.

Months ago we began to search the markets for Linens—and we have stocked our shelves and counters with the products of the leading foreign mills.

The Ready-to-Wear section offers a wealth of stylish garments—each one a model of perfection and beauty.

Milady will also revel in the exquisite showing of Gloves, Neckwear and other things amply able to fascinate the feminine eye. To buy now is to gain many advantages, for stocks were never half so alluring, nor were prices so much in your favor.

In fact—
This entire week at Thalheimer's will prove most helpful to fashion followers.
